Statement on Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging (must be included on all syllabi beginning with Summer 2021 courses)

Diversity, equity, inclusion, and a sense of belonging fuels excellence and innovation and are critical in our pursuit of racial and social justice. We are all responsible for maintaining a positive and inclusive environment. Every student, faculty, and staff member—whatever their race, ethnicity, nationality, cultural heritage, age, gender, sex, sexual orientation, religious or political beliefs, socioeconomic status, veteran status, or ability—has the right to inclusion, respect, agency, and voice within the DUSON and Duke community. By embracing diversity and inclusion in all that we do and strive for, we strengthen our community, pedagogy, research, practice and the future design, development, and delivery of health care that eliminates disparities both locally and globally.

The faculty work diligently to create and sustain a learning environment that promotes equity for all and is free of microaggressions, harassment, racism, and discrimination. If at any time a student does not feel supported, or has experienced or observed unfair treatment, they are encouraged to speak out for justice and support within the moment or after the moment has passed. Individual support and resources for reporting academic environment concerns can be found on the DUSON's Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion's website.
